3.5 ECONOMIC & TOURISM DEVELOPMENT

3.5.1 Economic Development Findings

- The Town of Bruno got its name from Father Bruno Doefler, a German American who migrated to the region from Illinois in response to the request for priests from German Catholic Canadians. Doefler became the Abbot of the newly founded Territorial Abbey of Saint Peter-Muenster, which encompassed the lands that would eventually become the Town of Bruno along with much of the surrounding region.
- Bruno was incorporated as a Village in 1909 and elevated to “Town” status in 1960.
- The Town is home to the Bruno Cherry festival, an annual event celebrating the dwarf sour cherry orchard. The celebration started as a casual event in 2003 but has grown into two day festival which attracts people from all over Saskatchewan. The festival, held for one weekend every August, features various local-and-beyond bands, all-day food service including a pancake breakfast and turkey supper, trade show, children's programming and more, with attendance peaking in 2009 at about 3,000 people.
- The Town of Bruno is home to one Municipal Heritage Property. The Old Fire Hall and Jail is valued as one of the oldest brick fire halls in Saskatchewan. Built in 1917-1918, the fire hall conveyed a sense of safety and security to the burgeoning town soon after it was incorporated. Built with a boom-town façade that features decorative window and door openings and entablature, the fire hall is constructed with brick that was manufactured locally at the Bruno brick plant. The Brick Plant was one of three major brick manufacturing facilities that operated in Saskatchewan in the early twentieth century. The fire hall's location on Bruno's Main Street is also evidence of the fire hall's prominence within the community. The property is also valued for its use as a jail, which was built during the same period as the fire hall. Today, two original jail cells remain intact as part of a small interpretive museum that focuses on the town's police history. Like the firehall, the jail also speaks to safety and security in a growing new community. The Old Fire Hall and Jail was designated on September 2, 2003.
- Opportunities for economic and tourism development opportunities can also be found throughout the many active groups, activities and facilities found within Bruno and region including, but not limited to the many community-based organizations; sports, culture and recreation groups; and services clubs and societies. Bruno draws sports tournaments from other local communities.
- The Statements of Provincial Interest Regulations provides the following statement concerning tourism:

- (2) Pursuant to The Act, Council may elect to request that an approving authority require the owner of land that is the subject of a proposed subdivision to provide money in place of all or a portion of land that would otherwise be required to be dedicated as municipal reserve.
- (3) The Town will consult with the Province, appropriate School Divisions, and affected regional partners regarding Municipal Reserve dedication for school purposes.
- (4) The following factors shall be considered in making decisions on the provision of municipal reserves:
  - (a) Smaller municipal reserve areas within new residential subdivisions should be provided for neighbourhood parks and playgrounds.
  - (b) In commercial and industrial subdivisions, cash-in-lieu of municipal reserve dedication will be considered as the primary method of meeting the municipal reserve requirement, unless the requirement can be transferred to an acceptable area and dedicated.

4.2.4 Development Levies and Servicing Fees

- (1) In accordance with Section 169 of The Act, the Council may establish, by separate bylaw, development levies for the purpose of recovering all or a part of the capital cost of providing, altering, expanding or upgrading services and facilities associated with a proposed development within an existing subdivided area. Such bylaw must be based on studies to establish the cost of municipal servicing and recreational needs and on a consideration of future land use and development and the anticipated phasing of associated public works.
- (2) In accordance with Section 172 of The Act, Council may require a servicing agreement with the proponent of a subdivision development. In order to provide overall direction and guidance in the negotiation of individual agreements with developers, Council may establish, by resolution, a schedule of development specifications and servicing fees. Such servicing specifications will provide a consistent set of development standards for the provision of services and works by developers within a proposed subdivision development. Subdivision servicing fees contribute in whole or in part towards the capital costs of services within or outside the subdivision that directly or indirectly serve the proposed subdivision.
